

District Youth Commissioner

Information for anyone considering the role of District Youth
Commissioner at Bradford South Scouts

About us

Overview of Youth Shaped

At Scouts, we provide young people with the opportunities to develop Skills for Life – including confidence to speak up, feeling empowered to make a difference and being ready to take the lead.

That's what being youth shaped is all about. Our programmes and decisions are shaped by young people, working in partnership with volunteers.

The difference you'll make to young people

Youth commissioners help young people to make their voices heard and improve scouts for the better. You'll be working to help more young people get the opportunity to speak up and take the lead – skills and experiences that set them up for the future. And in the process, you'll get to learn plenty of new skills yourself too.

The current vacancy

We're currently looking for a District Youth Commissioner to work with us at Bradford South Scouts.

What does a youth commissioner do?

Youth Commissioners are volunteers responsible for driving youth shaped in their local area. They support volunteers, shape the programme, influence decisions that we make at Scouts and take the lead.

They are aged 18-25 at appointment and enable volunteers to embed the ideas and decisions of young people into local scouting.

They play a key role in the leadership and management of the District. They need to motivate both volunteers and young people. Responsibilities in a youth commissioner role vary, but are likely to include:

- Supporting volunteers to put the views and ideas of young people at the heart of their section's programme
- Promote participation in the YouShape award in their District, as well as top awards
- Help to ensure that young people get regular opportunities to take the lead, including promoting participation in the young leader's scheme
- Inspire and motivate young people in the District, ensuring they know about all the different opportunities available to them in scouting, including when they reach 18 years old
- Influence decisions that are made in the District as a member of the District Executive Committee. Ensuring that young people are at the heart of decisions.

Support every step of the way

District Youth Commissioners are line managed by the District Commissioner, who will help you set objectives and work with you towards improving local youth shaped scouting.

Each County (or equivalent) also has a County Youth Commissioner who will be able provide support.

And the UK Youth Commissioner team are also here to support Youth Commissioners too - running inductions, events, webinars and more. So you'll have support available whenever you need it.

What you'll get from the role

Being a Youth Commissioner is an amazing role. As well as helping to drive youth shaped locally and giving young people a say, you'll also be learning loads of new skills and having fun along the way.

You'll get experience and develop skills that will look seriously impressive on a CV or university application - things like teamwork, communication and organisation, but also experience with governance, working with young people and leading others.

Across the UK, there are now over 600 Youth Commissioners doing amazing things. Ready to join them?

“Applying to become Youth Commissioner was genuinely one of the best decisions I've ever made. Through this role I've learned so much, got to work with a really great team, and made a big difference to the experience of young people in Scouts”.

“I never thought I'd get the role, but I decided to apply anyway just in case. 3 years later, I'm so glad I did. I'd recommend applying to everyone who is considering it”.

“What surprised me most when starting the role was the amazing support that was available from my local team and other youth commissioners. I've made new friends and gotten to work with some great people”.

“Seeing the difference this role makes to young people is the best part. I've watched young people speak up and shape their scouting experience for the better – and I couldn't be more proud”.
